According to the constitution of the Mississippi District UPCI,

Evangelists who have registered with (enrolled), and have been approved by the District Board as a full-time evangelist, may be given a rebate upon written request from said evangelist. This rebate is limited to 50% of the tithing they have paid into the District treasury after the amount of their Budget Fee and Quarterly Minimums have been deducted. This rebate is specifically designed for attendance to General Conference or an actual emergency. No evangelist holding a permanent/full-time job other than evangelizing shall be eligible for this benefit.

An evangelist shall affiliate with the section where he or she desires to be a member and work in harmony and cooperate with section leaders.
